Downtown Arlington Business Association Newsletter

October 2015

To Our Valued DABA Members;

Welcome to the first issue of DABA's newsletter. Our goal in producing this newsletter is to keep our members informed and involved. We want to hear from you. You're welcome to email any questions, comments or concerns to admin@arlingtonwa.org. Future newsletters will include a special welcome to new DABA members, upcoming events in Downtown Arlington as well as information and progress on a number of projects we are working on behind the scenes to keep downtown Arlington alive and thriving. If at anytime you want to discontinue receiving these updates, you are welcome to 'unsubscribe'.

New Administrators

DABA would like to introduce our new administrators; Wendy Gill (left) and Mary Andersen (right) with Andersen Accounting Solutions. DABA has been rebuilding our foundation over the past year. The Board voted to bring on our first paid position. After careful consideration, Andersen Accounting Solutions was hired. Owner of AAS, Mary Andersen has helped shape DABA into what it is today. She was DABA President in 2010, and Treasurer in more recent years. We are happy to keep her on our team and in turn inherit her sister, Wendy Gill.

Planning for the Future

On August 21st the Board, administrators and dedicated

FIRST ANNUAL VIKING FEST & PUB TOUR

Did you know that in the early 1800's Arlington, WA was one of the largest Norwegian settlements in the west? They're coming back on Saturday, October 3rd 2015. A number of events have been scheduled to keep you and your troop triumphing all day long. Engage in culture, heritage and & family fun. You will love conquering Downtown Arlington while also learning of our Scandinavian heritage.

community members took time out of their busy schedules to attend our first annual strategic planning retreat. Each attendee took great pride in being apart of this 8 hour productive brainstorming session. The enthusiasm felt in the room was electrifying. A full strategic plan is being compiled into a report to share with you soon (upon request). There are many wonderful ideas in the works!
