New Business

• 2 Bits & More Thrift Store Fire

Mike related his experiences with this devastating event. Mike thinks it's imperative that we as DABA help out 2 Bits & More. Mike asked Cristy what we can do as an organization. Jeff wants to have some transparency – need to know more information. How will the money be spent and to whom. DABA definitely wants to help. Cristy shared a previous fire event – she worked with city staff to put on a spaghetti dinner and did an auction to raise funds for that furniture store to benefit their employees.

Closing Business
